Dear, Brian:

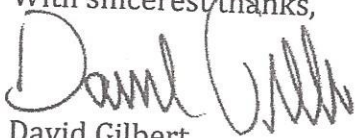

What an amazing week we had welcoming our guests and showcasing our great city to the world during the Republican National Convention! Thank you for your contributions in hosting this historic event. Because of your support, we were able to create a safe, inviting, engaging and seamless experience for our visitors.

Throughout Convention week and even after, local, national and international media praised our city for its beauty, its logistical aptitude, and most of all, for its friendly people. It's what we've known all along - that Cleveland is a phenomenal city with a highly engaged community. But with this Convention, millions more now know. And we couldn't have done any of it without you.

Beyond the recognition, this event has proven that Cleveland is capable of hosting large events, and we will leverage this to recruit other major meetings and conventions that will boost our economic status and reputation. This is just the beginning - a shining example of Cleveland's renaissance and upward trajectory.

As we look forward to what the future holds for Cleveland, we'd like to express our gratitude to you with a token of appreciation. Thank you again for your support.

With sincerest thanks,

David Gilbert
CEO, Cleveland 2016 Host Committee
